Mayors Corner

As we head into August and cooler temps are peaking around the corner, we shouldn't forget that summertime is still in full swing! Kids (and adults!) are walking all around town and enjoying the great outdoors. Fresh air and exercise have fantastic benefits for participants' physical and mental health. I've personally experienced this and highly recommend it!

When I'm a driver however, with places to go and air conditioner blaring, I've found it far too easy to overlook what is happening around the streetscape. Pedestrians walking on streets without sidewalks, waiting to cross at crosswalks are everywhere. I personally have witnessed too many kids waiting to cross our busy highway as dozens of cars pass by, none braking to let them pass safely.

In crosswalks, even unmarked ones, pedestrians have the right of way over cars. That means you should come to a complete stop until they have completely transited the street. Kids on their way to the pool or library, adults walking the family dog, out-of-town visitors strolling our beautiful city: they all deserve to be looked out for. Next time you are driving down to CJ Express for ice cream, to Minnie's for a doughnut, or to TKB for dinner, slow it down a bit and keep your eyes peeled.

It'll make for a more fun and safe summer for us all!
