STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS:

1. ADMIN/FINANCE COMMITTEE. CM Goracke, chair of the Admin/Finance Committee, reported on their meetings from December 15th and 22nd. Location, staffing, and funding options were discussed. This will be an ongoing discussion. Expanding the common consumption area to include the area from the west side of 7th street south to the north side of Walnut Street, the north side of Walnut Street to the east side of 8th Street, and the east side of 8th Street north to Elm Street was discussed. 2. YOUTH ADVISORY COMMITTEE. Mayor Frye reported that the Youth Advisory Committee met and discussed crossing guards on Center Street, the one way on Alston Street, parking on Center Street, the 7th Street corridor project, updating the parks, and potential changes to the YAC. 5. HAPPY HOLIDAYS, COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT. CM Scharter wished everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays. He also suggested having a yard of the month contest or holiday lighting contest for more community involvement.

The Mayor's idea for the Spring coloring contest is to involve the High School students as well and have a contest to design a new city flag and logo. CM Reinhart questioned why the flags on the bridge weren't up year-round and wondered about taking donations of flags or monetary donations to purchase flags to allow them to be kept up year-round.
